I, Timothy J. Perla, Esq., make this declaration pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746. I hereby declare as follows:

1. I am a Partner in the law firm of WilmerHale, and am counsel to TerraForm Global, Inc. ("Global") in litigation brought against Global under the federal securities laws, including cases in which Carlos Domenech Zornoza and Francisco Perez Gundin are also named as defendants. I am also counsel to Global in the "whistleblower" claims brought against Global by Messrs. Domenech and Perez. I make this declaration based on my personal knowledge.

2. Over the course of negotiations concerning the Insurance Allocation Agreement (the "Agreement"), I on numerous occasions via e-mail provided Kevin O'Connor (counsel to Messrs. Domenech and Perez) with then-current drafts of the Agreement, so that they could keep apprised of the negotiations and offer comments or views.

3. On August 14, 2017, I sent the then-current draft of the Agreement to Mr. O'Connor. He sent me an e-mail raising the following concern with respect to his clients' whistleblower claims: "We are uncomfortable with the release language description in ¶¶ 8 - 9 and 13, and want [sic] sign off on any releases of our clients. We cannot agree to any settlements that involve releases by our clients of any of the defendants in their whistleblower cases, which this language does not preclude."

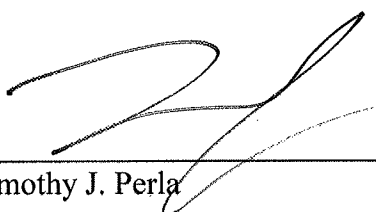

4. I understood counsel to be raising a concern that settlement agreements subsequently entered in any cases involving Messrs. Domenech and/or Perez as defendants (i.e., securities actions) could include releases by Messrs. Domenech and Perez of their whistleblower claims.

5. Because that was not what the Agreement provided, and because Global had no intention of using any settlement agreements to force Mr. Domenech and Perez to release their whistleblower claims, I responded, "Response: You should propose an edit. I certainly do not intend for anything in this agreement, or any class settlement, to cause your clients to release their claims. Add that expressly if you want."

6. Counsel for Messrs. Perez and Domenech never proposed an edit to address the above issue.
